

In the Name of Allah

Achievements of College of Arts and Humanities

June 2025

By the grace of Allah, the College of Arts and Humanities achieved several milestones in June 2025, including:

- .Hiring several professors in the Political Science department
- .Hiring a faculty member in the History and Archaeology department
- Seconding faculty members between the History and Archaeology, and Political Science departments
- .Holding several meetings for department heads with faculty members
- .Completing supplementary exams
- Preparing a research plan submitted by a PhD student from the Arabic Language and Literature department
- .Conducting a seminar session for a master's student in the Political Science department
- .Conducting a seminar session for a PhD student in the History and Archaeology department
- .Completing the summer session work
- .Publishing congratulations from the dean, vice dean, and department heads
- Holding several meetings for department heads with faculty members regarding the university textbook project
- .Holding several meetings with university textbook committees across all departments
- .Eid al-Adha holiday leave
- The official return of the administrative structure on Wednesday, 15 Dhu al-Hijjah 1446 AH / June 11, 2025
- .Intensive preparations for the start of the first semester of the 2025 academic year
- .The first semester begins on Saturday, 3 Muharram 1447 AH - June 28, 2025

.We ask Allah for success and guidance

Allah is the Grantor of Success.

